

FEB 17 1955

FOIAb3b

Annual Georgetown Homes Tour

The annual Georgetown House of Mr. and Mrs. Frank G. Wisner, Tour will again lead the calendar Mr. and Mrs. Edwin H. Somers, list of springtime events in Wash- Secretary of the Air Force Harold ington. On Friday and Saturday, E. Talbott and Mrs. Talbott, Mr. April 1 and 2, between 3 and 6 and Mrs. J. Noel Macy and Mr. p.m. sixteen Georgetown residents and Mrs. Ray Atherfon, will open their homes to Wash- Tour tickets which are $2.50 ingtonians and guests. The pro- may be purchased at Francis sceds of this tour, now in its Scott Key Book Shop, the AAA, thirty-first year, will benefit the The Little Caledonia, work of historic St. John's Episco- pal Church, Georgetown.

Mrs. Irvin D. Foos who was chairman of the event from 1948 through 1950 is back on the job this year. She will be assisted by Mrs. Carroll Perry, Jr., chairman of hostesses, and her two assist- ants, Mrs. H. W. Burnside and Miss Mary Frances Norton. Mrs. Quincy Adams will handle tickets and posters. Mrs. Charles F. Pentz is in charge of the Friday evening Candlelight Tour of historic Pros- pect House, the Thurmond Chat- ham's home and former residence of the late Secretary of Defense James Forrestal.

Tea will be served in the Parish Hall of the church between 3 and 6 on both days. Mrs. J. Russell McQueen is tea chairman. Mrs. Foos' general committee includes Mrs. Harcourt Sontag, Mrs. Rich- ard N. Ivins, Mrs. F. W. Robey, Mrs. T. O. Timberlake, Mrs. George Bean, Mrs. J. Hite Gilbert, Mrs. John Hession and Mrs. E. K. Moss.

The tour Friday will include homes west of Wisconsin Avenue and on Saturday those on the east side. Homes which the "tourers" will have the privilege of visiting are those of Mr. and Mrs. James M. Gibson, Mr. and Mrs. Abe Fortas, Mr. and Mrs. John Brown Payson, The Honorable and Mrs. James H. Douglas and Mr. and Mrs. Edward J. Dies.

Others to be open are the homes

CPYRGHT